

Now it's up to us

Acts 28:30-31

Pastor Greg Wilson

1. Sailors, Soldiers, Storms, and now Snakes

- Who could blame Paul if he wondered if he was really following the will of God?
- People will always worship something

2. Unexpected Blessings

- The natives were blessed by the power of prayer
- The natives, in turn, blessed Paul and his entourage

3. The Gospel had beaten Paul to Rome

- God wanted Paul to get to Rome, to stand before Caesar, but God also saw to it that the Gospel arrived at Rome without Paul's help

4. The Message of Christ Will Triumph

- It was becoming increasingly clear that "official Judaism" as a whole would not embrace Christ
- The Word of God in Christ, not Peter, not Paul, is the real hero of Acts

The Gospel of Christ will triumph. What is amazing is that God will allow us to help spread His Word.

You shall be witnesses...
